

Carol Curd

August 11, 2015

Carrol Jean Curd, 71, passed away Tuesday, August 11th, 2015 at her home in Richmond. Ms. Curd was a native of Versailles, Kentucky, a daughter of the late Kenneth and Dorothy Atwell Curd. Ms. Curd was a retired employee of Jefferson Pilot and Kentucky Central Insurance Company. She was an avid golfer, who often played at Arlington Golf Course. She was preceded in death by her cousin Dean Atwell.

Survivors include her cousins Linnea Nadel, Anthony Andrews, Sandra Salama, Karen Allen, Jack Atwell, Michael Atwell, Robert Atwell, David Atwell, David Atwell; and her dear friends Michelle and Anthony Mitchell, and Tamrin Yates.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday, August 18th, 11:30 am at the Heritage Funeral Home. Burial will follow in the Sunset Memorial Gardens in Frankfort Kentucky. Friends may call from 10:30 until service time Tuesday.

Cemetery

Events

Sunset Memorial Gardens (Frankfort)
3250 Versailles Road
Frankfort, KY, 40601

AUG 18
Visitation 10:30AM - 11:30AM
Heritage Funeral Home (Formerly Turpin)
237 N. 2nd St., Richmond, KY, US, 40475

AUG 18
Service 11:30AM
Heritage Funeral Home (Formerly Turpin)
237 N. 2nd St., Richmond, KY, US, 40475

Comments

“ Woody, Nikki, purchased the Violets And Butterflies for the family of Carol Curd.

Woody, Nikki, - August 17, 2015 at 11:37 AM

“ The Andrews - Tony, Karen, Matt, and Anthony II purchased the Arrive in Style for the family of Carol Curd.

The Andrews - Tony, Karen, Matt, and Anthony II - August 17, 2015 at 11:37 AM

“ Casey McKean lit a candle in memory of Carol Curd

Casey McKean - August 14, 2015 at 05:21 PM

“ I had the pleasure to work with Carol a few years ago. I loved hearing stories she would tell of her dog Woody and her cat Crystal. She was a very sweet lady and even after she left that job she would call us up when the weather got bad and made sure we were okay. It is heart breaking to know that she is gone. Sending my prayers and love to her family and friends. She will be greatly missed.

Casey McKean - August 14, 2015 at 05:20 PM